BANKERS ARE OFF TO SAINT LOUIS

Meeting is to Protest Against Recent Decision of the Federal Reserve Board.

(By Associated Press.)
Dallas, Texas, June 9.—Bankers of Texas were concentrating here and at Longview today, preparatory to taking a special train for St. Louis tonight, where they will attend a national conference to protest against the collection and clearing system recently announced by the federal reserve board. The conference was to open in St. Louis tomorrow.
The Texas delegation will be headed by J. W. Butler of Clifton, president of the State Bankers' Association.
It was believed that fully 100 would make the trip on the bankers' special.

SECOND LAYMAN'S SERMON SUNDAY NIGHT.

Attorney Law Henderson is the Man Chosen for the Address Next Sunday Night.

As announced in The Eagle last week, a series of layman sermons are in progress at the First Baptist Church of this city. The second sermon will be delivered next Sunday night at that place by Layman Law Henderson. Mr. Henderson is the junior member of the law firm of Doremus, Butler & Henderson, and is a young man whose brilliancy has been demonstrated on many occasions and is said to be one of the brightest young lawyers in the State of Texas. He is a young man who has always taken the lead in matters pertaining to the uplift and upbuilding of the social and moral life in his home county, Brazos, and in the State. It is predicted that Mr. Henderson's address will be uplifting to all those who hear him.

STOLE OATS FROM CAR.

Box Car Burglars Took 15 Sacks of Grain—One Arrested.
Lockhart, Texas, June 9.—A box car on the siding near the Sap passenger depot here was broken into Wednesday night and 15 sacks of oats were taken. Officers investigated the theft early Thursday morning and traced the wagon by a trail of grain from one of the sacks which was torn. The stolen grain was found in a house in the eastern section of Lockhart, and brought back to town. An arrest has been made.

SIDEWALK MEN READY FOR WORK

Equipment and Material is in the City and Walks Should Be Built With Paving.

From the looks of paving equipment and material that is scattered over the city, one would think that the entire town was to be paved, lots and all. A contractor remarked yesterday afternoon, however, that much of the material which is on the streets is for sidewalk building. He said that you might just say in the paper that we are now ready to build the walks.
And it is to be hoped that every property owner in Bryan who has not a four-foot concrete sidewalk running in front of his property, will have same by the time the paving of the residence district is completed. Money spent for cement sidewalks is in no manner gone, but is something that will stay with you and enhance the value of your property. Another thing, as The Eagle suggested last week, it is the only possible way for Bryan to ever get free mail service.

Let's put these walks down and get out of this old style way of wading through the mud and going to the postoffice for our mail.

SALOONS ARE TO BE REFUSED LICENSE

Comptroller Terrell Will Refuse to License Where Law Has Been Violated.

(By Associated Press)

Austin, Texas, June 9.—There will be considerable decrease in the number of saloons in Texas after July 10, should Comptroller H. B. Terrell carry out his plan of pruning out undesirable saloon keepers or those who have violated portions of the liquor laws, according to an announcement here today.

The comptroller has said he did not propose to renew the permit of any liquor dealer who has in any way failed to observe every provision of this law. In this connection he has been conducting an extensive campaign, especially in the larger cities of the State. Instead of instituting proceedings for the cancellation of licenses, it was said, he will refuse to renew their permits, and thus automatically close their businesses. Of 3500 saloon licenses in the State 2100 will expire July 10, and of this number it is declared perhaps 300 will not get renewals.

Fashion Hints.

Those who have the price of light ones can now remove the heavy ones if they so desire.
It is not considered good form to wear derby hats with sweaters this year.
Shines will be worn on the seats and elbows of last year's serge suits as well as on the shoes.
Corsets and belts will be worn in the same old place.
Burnt sienna will be the popular shade for elbows that are worn with short-sleeved waists.
Petticoats and bow legs are not considered stylish this summer.
Catchers' masks should be worn with sport shirts and wrist watches.

Let's Swat Him.

He'll soon be here, he's overdue.
The man who always gets my goat—Yes, friend, I'm referring to The doggone pest who rocks the boat.

Huh!

"You certainly got a neat job of painting," remarked Mrs. Smith, as she inspected Mrs. Brown's rooms.
"Why, there isn't a bit of paint on the furniture or the floors!"
"No," smiled Mrs. Brown. "You see, I told the painters that I wanted the floors and the furniture painted.
That's why they got all the paint on the walls and the ceilings."

My!

"Silk stockings are a Snare," said Bowls;
"For they have cotton Tops and soles."

Great Idea.

"I have a novel idea for a cover for the next issue of our magazine," said the assistant editor.
"Ah, that's good," said the editor in chief. "What is it?"
"I am going to print a girl's picture on the cover," whispered the assistant editor. "But we must keep this idea a secret or other magazines will beat us to it."

Then robs Paul to pay Peter.
